

World Book Day takes place on Thursday 4th March. Although we can't celebrate together, there are still lots of fun activities that you and your family can take part in.

One of the things that I love about reading is that I can be transported to another world. I can escape my house and go somewhere completely different. It's really helped me through lockdown when I haven't been able to go anywhere. They've kept me entertained and made me laugh. I hope books have done the same for you.

Below is a list of websites that have links to: author blogs, e-books and activities. I hope you enjoy them.

Carlisle United is working in partnership with the National Literacy Trust to celebrate World Book Day with a Facebook Live event for schools and families. It will be hosted by Match of the Day Kickabout presenter Kenzie Benali and featuring Alex Bellos and Ben Lyttleton, authors of the Football School series, it also features a live quiz with the authors.

The quiz is interactive and one of the rounds will feature questions asked by players from the Premier League, the English Football League and the Women's Super League!
