Dear Parents and Carers

On Monday 27th February, Narnia class will take part in a WW2 Evacuation Morning to start their writing topic 'Narnia'. They will get to experience what it is like to be evacuated (within school) and use this information to help them with their writing.

To bring this morning to life, we ask that the children in Narnia class come to school dressed as a WW2 evacuee on Monday 27th February. This does not need to be a bought costume – please see examples below of what they could wear (the items are not compulsory):

Girls	Boys
Cardigan, pinafore dress or skirt with blouse, white knee length socks, brown or black lace up shoes. Hair in 2 plaits or for short hair centre parted with a ribbon or head band. Hat or beret Woolly scarf	Knee length socks Tank top or blazer over a shirt or anything woolly jumper or cardi-looking Long shorts Shirt (buttoned up to top) Caps or hat Woolly scarf
They can come with a luggage label and 'gas mask box' if you have the time/resources for this. Clothes that are too small look good- it is make do & mend!
